Wilmeth Elementary founded in 2005 and was named after J.B. Wilmeth. J.B. Wilmeth was one of the early settlers of North Texas. He and Collin McKinney were famous settlers of the area north of Dallas, now known as Collin County. Wilmeth, McKinney, B.F. Hall, Dr. Mansel Matthews, Lynn D'Spain, and many others were of the first in the Lone Star State to preach the old time gospel. Wilmeth was an educated man, and believed in educating others. He opened his home to be one of the first free schools in the area. He also served as county clerk and judge.

Wilmeth Elementary Instructional Technology:

Second graders through fifth graders will have one to one MacBooks for classroom use. First graders and kindergartners will have one to one iPads for daily use. All iPads will be managed by a MDM solution that controls standardized grade level app deployment along with managing software updates and web filters. Each classroom contains an interactive panel with a connected Mac Mini and document camera. Each teacher has a MacBook laptop for use at school and at home. Technology is integrated at all levels of learning. Wilmeth Elementary staff and students will use learning management systems to support blended learning. Students in grades kindergarten through second will use the SeeSaw learning management system, whereas students in grades third through fifth will use Canvas as the learning management system. Staff and students will have access to additional instructional technology resources such as: Google Apps for Education, apps deployed to ipads, Discovery Education, Texshare databases, Gale Virtual Library, PebbleGo, PebbleGo Next, Nearpod, Stemscoptes, Imagine Math, HMH's Amira,
