

How to Take Care of Your Skin Infection

After you shower, change into clean clothes. If pus is on your clothes, change into clean clothes. If pus is on your clothes, change into clean clothes.

If pus is showing, WEAR GLOVES

do bandage. WEAR GLOVES change into clean clothes

After you shower,

if pus is on your clothes,

Bandage- WEAR GLOVES -to apply.

Keep away from the infected area.

If your infection starts to smell bad or drain,

Seek medical attention IMMEDIATELY

How to Change Your Bandage.

1. Gather Your Supplies.

- A clean, dry surface

• A clean, dry cloth or paper towel to use as a barrier between the bandage and the surface

- A pair of clean gloves

• A pair of clean scissors

• A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel

- A clean, dry cloth or paper towel