

SHARS (School Health and Related Services) Page Acknowledgement

In our continued effort to provide the highest quality education and services, McKinney ISD has been approved as a provider for the SHARS program, which allows the district to receive federal Medicaid reimbursement for medically necessary services provided to their special education students when the services meet the requirements of the state's School-Based Medicaid program and are provided in accordance with the students' IEPs (Individualized Education Plan)